The policies set forth below apply only to your visit to the web sites operated by or for Gosh Enterprises, Inc. or its affiliates ("Charley's" or "we"). Our web sites include those that contain charleys.com in their URLs (the "Charley's Sites"). We do not control and are not responsible for the content or privacy practices of third-party web sites which are linked to/from the Charley's Sites.

While Charley's does not generally require that you provide us with personal information to visit and use the Charley's Sites, in order to participate in some offers or activities or to access certain information or services, it may be necessary for you to provide personal information. If you choose not to provide personal information, you may not be able to access or participate in those activities or services.

Collection of Information

For each visitor to a Charley's Site, Charley's Web server automatically recognizes and stores information such as the visitor's IP address/domain name combination, your computer's operating system and the type of browser you use and the specific web pages you visit. We use this information to follow visitor traffic patterns through our sites for purposes such as enhancing usability. Your computer provides this information automatically each time you log on, unless you've activated blocking technology available in some browsers.

When you visit Charley's Sites or use one or more of our services, such as the store locator, we may use an industry-wide technology known as "cookies" which store certain information on your computer and which would allow us to customize your visit to our Site or facilitate your signing in to use the services. We do not use cookies to gather any personally identifiable information about you aside from what you voluntarily provide us. Our cookies do not corrupt or damage your computer. Most browsers will allow you to erase cookies from your computer hard drive, block acceptance of cookies, or receive a warning before a cookie is stored. Please refer to your browser instructions or help screen to learn more about these functions. We may collect and maintain and may share statistical or aggregated non-personal information about our users with our business partners and other third parties.

Additionally, you may be asked to provide personal information, such as your email address, name, mailing address, telephone number, other demographic information, financial information and employment related information as may be found on resumes, background verification information or in employment references or persistent identifier (such as a customer number held in a cookie) to us if you communicate with us by email or if you supply other information to us voluntarily, for example to enable you to make on-line purchases, to join Charley's E-Club to participate in certain online promotions or activities or to submit an employment application, franchise application or stories or comments to us. Charley's may combine the information you provide on Charley's Sites with information we may collect offline from you or from third parties so that we can more effectively tailor our Site, services and product offerings to you.

Charley's will not use the personal information you provide except for the purposes indicated or inferred at the time you voluntarily provide such information to us. We may share personal information with our service providers and consultants for our internal business purposes. Charley's will not share the personal information you provide on the Charley's Sites with any other parties, except (a) with your consent, (b) where we have reason to believe that disclosing the information is necessary in an emergency situation or to identify, contact or bring legal action against someone who may be causing injury to or interference with (either intentionally or unintentionally) our rights or property or other users or anyone else who could be harmed by such activities, (c) as may be permitted or required to respond to a subpoena or by law or court order and/or (d) to persons or companies with whom Charley's contracts to carry out the internal operations of the Charley's Sites or our business.

Charley's does not ask for a social security number at the time the franchise application is submitted, but will not process the application further until we separately obtain a social security number from you. A prospective franchisee's information may be shared with an area developer in their area. An area developer is a third party which is an independent contractor of Charley's which assists with franchise sales, operational and support services to franchisees in a particular territory. An area developer may use personal information to contact a prospective franchisee about franchise sales in its territory or other inquiries. Charley's and its service providers and area developers may share and exchange personal information in order to process your application.

Charley's takes great care in maintaining the security of your personal information and in preventing unauthorized access to it through the use of appropriate technology and internal procedures.
